

P277 Comfy

Here's our emerald-clad girl again, this time, planted in a mountain of feather pillows.

Jess has an uncommon ability to display herself in a way that's provocative, but somehow "casual".

James Dean had that languid quality, capable of making women's hearts flutter just by slouching confidently in a straight-backed chair. Jess likewise appears to "own" whatever space she occupies. Her posing is full of nuance. Notice for instance how she pushes her lower body out and up slightly, as if she's grabbing a piece YOUR space as well. Her riveting gaze also solidifies her spacial command

And I've said it before, you gotta give props to that full, very lovely mouth.
